

I support New Jersey's strict "do not call" regulations. Penalties have to exceed the profit motives of these companies or they will simply ignore less stringent Federal regulations.